THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaf, withering tree and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Frost, rain, snow,—they are coming. You remember last winter,—of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. Ah! the thousands it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grasp it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Droughts that began before Thanksgiving Day and ending with the first of January, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Porous Plaster. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints.

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, bronchitis, rheumatism, lumbago, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, indigestion,—they all go down before Benson's Plaster like a snow image in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each. Seebury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N. Y.

FISHING DOWN CHIMNEYS.

A Sinker as Necessary on the Lines as on Those Dropped in the Sea.

"Fish lines," said a man standing on a roof and apparently fishing with a drop line down a chimney, "are, as you will observe if you will wait here a minute, not the only ones on which sinkers are used."

As he spoke he ceased alternately raising and lowering the line a little as he had been doing as though making the bait active to attract some fish below and hauled up the line altogether, and on the end of it was seen not a bait, but a stubby, cylindrical brush of red splints, and below that a heavy sinker. What the man was fishing for in the chimney was soon—not to haul it up, but to dislodge it so that it would fall to where it could be taken out at the chimney openings below.

"In the old days chimneys were bigger," this roof fisherman continued. "They used to go down inside of chimneys to clean them, men or boys, oftenest boys. You've heard, no doubt, of people being stuck in a chimney, but now, with the burning of hard coal and with less soot and less need for big chimneys and with the economy of space due to the increasing value of land, chimneys are made smaller. The flues are now so small that you can't go down 'em, and you have to clean 'em from the top."

"Of course the brush has got to be used enough to reach the sides of the flue and clean the soot off, and if there are projections inside the flue or there is any change of direction in it the brush, being itself pretty large, but not very heavy, might lodge there and not go beyond that point. Hence the attaching of the sinker to carry the brush down through the flue and past obstructions that otherwise might stop it, and a pretty good big one it must be. In fact, a sinker is as necessary in fishing down a chimney as in fishing on the sea."—New York Sun.

Making Sure of His Honesty.

As the daily train reached a Vermont village the other day an antique looking dame thrust her head out of the window opposite the refreshment room and briefly said:

"Sonny!"

A bright looking boy came up to the window.

"Little boy," she said, "have you a mother?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Do you go to school?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"And are you faithful to your studies?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Do you say your prayers every night?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"Can I trust you to do an errand for me?"

"Yes, ma'am."

"I think I can, too," said the lady, looking steadily down on the manly face.

"Here is five cents to get me an apple. Remember, God sees you."—Boston Courier.

Why He Was Glad.

A police official was saying the other day that he had hardly ever seen an Irishman who wasn't ready with a quick retort, no matter what the circumstances might be.

"It was about three years ago that I arrested a certain fellow," he said. "He was about the drunkest man I ever saw to be still standing on his feet. As soon as I got hold of him he wanted to make trouble. He was just like many others from the old sod when they get full of bad booze and they think there is a chance for a scrap. He made a pass at me, but I reached over and tapped him once on the head with my stick. He became quiet right away, and he looked up at me and said:

"'And what time is it?"

"Of course I couldn't help but answer, 'Just struck one.'"

"Well, if that's so," he answered, "O'm glad yez didn't hit me an hour sooner."—Louisville Times.

Bird Hunting on Horseback.

Kentuckians of the blue grass region hunt birds on horseback. A Kentuckian's hunter must not only be willing to stand while the owner dismounts and goes to look after a covey of birds, but must also allow the owner to fire a shotgun from its back.

A great deal of the hunting in the blue grass region is now done in this way, and many of the sportsmen are as good at wing shooting from the saddle as from the ground.—Exchange.

Sick of Tigers.

A cynical old man once found himself in the company of a large number of Anglo-Indians, and he proceeded to ask each guest if he had shot a tiger. At last one gentleman declared he had never even seen the royal beast.

"Thank God!" exclaimed the questioner. "May I sit next to you at dinner? I am so weary of hearing about the deaths of tigers."—Athenaeum.

ENGLISHMAN GOT A SHOCK.

Cultured Chinaman Made Him Lose His Sense of Superiority.

A writer in London M. A. P. tells of meeting Sir Chi Chen, afterward the Chinese ambassador to London, in Tientsin when the latter was plain Mr. Lo Feng Luh, an under-secretary of state in the entourage of the viceroy of the province, Li Hung Chang. "My own mission was to the 'Bismarck of China,' as the one statesman in faroff Cathay was known at the time, which was before the fall," says the writer, "and Mr. Lo Feng Luh had been deputized to serve me in the double capacity of cicerone and interpreter."

"We sat sipping tea in the long wait which in Chinese court life follows the announcement of your name and precedes your reception, and is supposed to deepen your respect for the great man of whom you have sought an audience and to deepen in yourself any lingering consciousness of British superiority. Then it was that Mr. Lo Feng Luh suddenly opened up his battery of questions and criticism upon the leading men of letters, philosophers and theologians of Europe. His inquiries were not, indeed, of the alumni of one nation, but of many, and when he had done with Spencer, Huxley, Darwin, the Elizabethan poets, the theology of Dolinger, the writing of Comte, the plays of Moliere, he waited his way to America and was promptly at home with Oliver Wendell Holmes, James Russell Lowell and the funny stories of Mr. Chauncey Depew."

The Sargasso Sea.

The Sargasso sea is a region in the Atlantic about midway between southern Europe and America, extending from 21 to 23 degrees north latitude and between 29 and 45 degrees west longitude. It derived its name from a Portuguese word signifying a grape, and was so called because the seaweeds characteristic of the region bear on their branches small air cells, which in shape are not unlike the grape clusters. The weeds themselves are among the most peculiar of vegetable productions, since they have no roots nor any signs of fructification and are propagated by division. They float in the water, sometimes in dense masses extending for miles.

This portion of the Atlantic is a great eddy, little affected by the currents which surround it on every side, and the stillness of the water, it is supposed, has contributed to the development of the weeds in the vast quantities in which they are found. The floating masses were noticed by Columbus and his men, to whom they were a source of uneasiness, as the sailors supposed they indicated shallow water. Detached masses of the weed are often seen in the gulf stream; and the long, yellow lines of floating weed are a sure indication of its close proximity.

Power and Nose.

A large nose is always an unfailing sign of a decided character. It belongs to the man of action, quick to see and to seize opportunity. A small nose indicates a passive nature, one less apt to act, although he may feel as deeply. He will have many theories, while the possessor of a large nose will have deeds to show. Persons with small noses are most loving and sympathetic, but their friendship is not the active kind.

A nose with the tip slightly tilted is the sign of the heartless flirt. A long nose shows dignity and repose. A short nose, pugacity and a love of gayer. An arched nose—one projecting at the bridge—shows thought. A straight nose shows an inclination toward serious subjects. A nose that turns up slightly indicates eloquence, wit and imagination. If turned up much, it shows egotism and love of luxury. A nose that slopes out directly from the forehead, that shows no indenting between the eyes, indicates power.

A Bold "Ad."

As may be supposed, the largest advertisement in the world is that of an American firm. But the giant "ad." is not in America. Far off across the rolling deep it is spread along the face of a cliff on one of the islets of the Canary group, so that all passing steamers may sight it and their passengers have the benefit of its advice. The whole sentence is 750 feet long and is painted on the cliff at a height of 300 feet from the waves. There are four words in letters each 30 feet high and 75 feet wide. The huge sign can be seen for miles at sea on a clear day. The boldness of the thing almost takes away any anger which one may feel at the disfigurement of the islet by this bit of commercial enterprise.

LOOSE MARRIAGE TIES.

The Mohammedan Husband May Break His at Will.

The Koran says the husband may divorce his wife without assigning any reason or giving any notice. He may rebuke, imprison and scourge her. He may twice divorce and twice take back the same woman, but if he a third time divorce her she cannot again become his wife until she has married and been divorced from some other man. (Surah II, 230.)

Yet Ibrahim Halebi says: "In the absence of serious reasons no Musselman can justify divorce in the eyes of either religion or the law. If he abandon his wife, or put her away from simple caprice, he draws down upon himself the divine anger, for 'the curse of God,' said the prophet, 'rests upon him who repudiates his wife capriciously.'" Practically, however, a Mohammedan may whenever he pleases, without assigning any reason, say to his wife, "Thou art divorced," and she must then return to her parents. (Amir Ali, Personal Law of Mohammedans, 332; Lane, Modern Egyptians, I, 150, 247.)

Among most of the Mohammedan peoples divorces are very frequent. According to Dr. Van der Berg, an even more fatal influence is exercised on family life in the east by this laxity of the marriage tie than by polygamy. In Cairo, according to Lane, there are not many men who have not divorced one wife if they have been married for a long time, and many men in Egypt have in the course of two years married as many as twenty, thirty or more wives, while there are women advanced in age who have been wives to a dozen or more men successively. In Morocco a man repudiates his wife on the slightest provocation and marries again. Among the Moors of the Sahara it is considered "low" for a couple to live very long together. (Westermarck, 519, 520.)

A Carlsbad Cure.

The consulting room of a Carlsbad physician seems about the last place in the world for humorous incidents. Yet this is what happened in one of these haunts of the sick the other day. A new patient, after having been thoroughly cross examined by the doctor, had received minute instructions as to diet, etc., and was dismissed with this injunction, "As for smoking, you must limit yourself to three cigars daily; three light cigars and no more." After a few days the patient appears again in the consulting room. "Well, and how are you?" asks the physician.

"I should be all right," replies the patient, "but your orders about smoking are difficult to follow."

"I am sorry," the doctor says categorically, "but no more than three cigars a day. You must just put up with it."

"But, doctor, it really is an awful business. Wouldn't two a day do? I feel ill every time I smoke."

"Why, man, what in the world do you smoke for at all if that is the case?" the doctor roared.

"But, doctor, wasn't it you yourself who said 'three cigars a day and no more'?" Of course I thought they were part of the cure and began upon them, though I've never in my life taken to smoking." Tab-leau!—Westminster Gazette.

We Know What

Is going to happen to the little boy who is stuffing himself with green apples. A grown man couldn't be induced to try that experiment; and yet the grown man will overload himself with indigestible food for which he will pay a greater penalty than could be. It is this careless and thoughtless eating which is the beginning of stomach trouble and all its painful consequences.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other forms of "stomach trouble." It restores the weak and run-down man or woman to sound health.

"Some time has elapsed since I have written you in regard to the treatment I have been taking under your instructions," says Mr. E. F. Cingmar, of Minneapolis, Minn. "When I first commenced taking your medicine I was under treatment of a well-known specialist in this city (and had been for four months), for catarrh, and especially stomach trouble, and I was rapidly getting worse. Got so bad that I could not eat anything that did not distress me terribly, and I was obliged to quit taking the doctor's treatment entirely. I was greatly reduced in flesh. As a last resort I wrote to you and stated my case, and after receiving your instructions I followed them closely. After taking five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets' I commenced to improve, and decided to continue the medicine and observe your instructions regarding hygienic treatment. It is now nearly six months since I commenced your treatment and I can say that I am well and never felt better in my life. Am very grateful to you for what your medicine has done for me."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

SONOMA, JAN. 25, 1902.

H. H. GRANICE - EDITOR

SANTA ROSA has a million-dollar cattle company.

NAPA has already commenced to plan for her Fourth of July celebration. Nothing like beginning early to avoid the rush.

SIDNEY M. SMITH, the capitalist and promoter of many enterprises in this State, dropped dead at the railway depot in San Jose on Monday.

REV. MR. GASTON of Santa Rosa is preparing to celebrate the organization of the first Baptist church in that city fifty years ago. Now, my dear Gaston, where is Alphonse?

Don't forget that the California Northwestern railway wants you to send in your name for summer boarders. Let's fill up our valley with visitors the coming season. Its good for you, its good for trade. Its good for everybody and everything.

OZA MEYER, the stage struck wife of ex-editor Louis Meyer of Healdsburg, has secured that divorce from her hubby on the grounds of "cruelty." The curtain was rung down on this last act in her domestic drama of life in the Superior Court of San Francisco one day this week.

THROUGH the courtesy of Wm. H. Smith we are in receipt of the New Year's edition of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser of Honolulu. The number is one of the most superb holiday publications that we have seen this season. It embraces seventy-eight pages and a highly embellished cover. How is that for a daily in one of our new possessions? Mr. Smith, who served an apprenticeship in this office, has been holding a lucrative and responsible position on the paper for several years.

JUDGE HARRINGTON of Alturas is having a hard time of it with the turbulent and obstreperous John Raker, who is one of the attorneys for the defense in the Modoc lynching case. Raker's tactics are quite unique. He is endeavoring to wear the trial judge out in the hopes of getting in inadmissible testimony for his clients. But Judge Harrington's plan of thwarting Raker in his purpose is equally unique. Whenever his Honor feels tired and weary he commits the attorney to jail for contempt until he is sufficiently recuperated to resume his seat on the Bench and renew the trial, which, owing to the conduct of the defense, is a disgrace to our State. Raker appears to be a fitting person to defend the cowardly, sneaking crowd of midnight assassins who so diabolically hanged four helpless men and a boy to wipe out their opponents in a local feud of long standing in the lava beds of the Modoc country.

GAVE THEM A SHOCK.

Big Gum Tree Falls Across the Sunset Telephone Line.

During the storm Thursday morning a big gum tree was uprooted off Broadway near the Dr. Walliser place and fell across the wires of the Sunset telephone line. The contact created a great electrical disturbance in the offices of the company in Napa and Santa Rosa, and cut off telephone communication between the two places. When the tree struck the wire the telephone office in Napa received a 40,000-voltage shock which burned the switch-board, destroyed 250 fuses and injured the cable, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars. So great was the disturbance the operators fled from the office in terror.

The tree was removed during the afternoon by John Wagon and communication between the two cities restored.

A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by F. Duhring.

Schellville News Items.

Abramo Marucci visited Sonoma Wednesday.

Station Agent Cummings and Miss Josephine Kiser visited Sonoma Saturday.

Mr. Tom Donahue was in Schellville last Tuesday and was warmly greeted by his many friends.

Josh Pritchard has sold his productive and well improved little farm at Embarcadero to John Guilfoyle.

Chas. Filippini boarded the California Northwestern train at this place for San Francisco Monday morning.

Mrs. I. Kiser and two children returned last Monday evening from Bolinas after a pleasant visit with relatives.

H. Martin of the Schellville Rod and Gun Club spent Sunday on the marshes. Ducks were scarce and he returned to the city with an empty game bag.

The grain on John Yenni's ranch below this place is making a fine growth. There is not a spot in the field, which presents a beautiful sight with its carpet of green.

The San Luis public school opened Monday with Miss Marcella Glazier in charge and an attendance of thirty-seven pupils, an unusual number for the winter.

Salmon have commenced running up Sonoma creek. On Tuesday last Chas. Ohm caught four with hook and line. They averaged about ten pounds in weight and were hooked in the creek below Marucci's Hotel.

Ducks have been scarce in the Sonoma marshes this week and in consequence hunters have returned home with empty bags. Even the shooting grounds of the Alameda Gun Club have afforded poor sport to its members the past few days.

A surveying crew in the employ of Central California Electric Power Company have finished surveying the line of the proposed electric railway. Stakes have been driven from Sears' Point east of the California Northwestern track and parallel with it to Schellville station. From there the line is staked out to Napa. The surveyors are now working elsewhere on the proposed line.

Frozen Wine.

Word has been received at the Italian Swiss colony near Asti, says the Press Democrat, that two carloads of wine recently shipped from that winery arrived at their eastern destination with the wine in a different condition than when it left the sunshine of northern Sonoma. One of the cars was shipped to Utica and the other to Indianapolis. When these places were reached the wine was found to have been frozen in the barrels. This resulted from the intense cold through which the cars had passed.

Repairing Neatly Done

Never thought of such a sign for a medicine did you? Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body has to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it.

These poor bodies wear out from worry, from over-work, from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and all of the old ones are racked from long usage.

Scott's Emulsion fixes all kinds. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft bones hard, thin blood red, weak lungs strong, hollow places full. Only the best materials are used in the patching and the patches don't show through the new glow of health. No one has to wait his turn. You can do it yourself—yourself and the bottle.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

The new dining room of the El Verano Villa has been completed and newly furnished. This room has been christened the blue room owing to its furnishings being in that color.

As Charles Prussia was hitching up his carriage horse Sunday, preparatory to attending church in Sonoma, the animal became frightened and took to his heels before he had been harnessed to the vehicle. The snorting steed ran toward the P. I. Company's vineyard with the owner in hot pursuit. After chasing the animal for two hours through brush and vineyard he was finally secured. No damage resulted. The owner, however, was thoroughly out of wind and expressed himself as having done his share of penance for that day.

Modern Preachers.

ARE THEY TO BE TRUSTED AND BELIEVED?

The only value of the question in the headline is to bring home the fact that of all classes of testimony, that offered by the clergy would be most promptly accepted without doubt or cavil. The clergy stand for truth and right, and thousands follow them living up to the same precepts of rectitude. These followers are no whit less truthful than their leaders. Yet because the preacher is a leader it is natural to give weight to his statements. His very position and responsibility to his people and the world at large not only forbid the thought of untruth in him, but lend emphasis to any voluntary declaration of fact which he may make. If a pastor says to one of his congregation who is coughing, "I cured a very bad cough once by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," he could offer no stronger endorsement as to the value of that well-known medicine as a cure for coughs; and if such a pastor makes for the time the world his parish, and puts out the same testimony he is only enlarging the scope of his beneficence. For if the world at large knew and was persuaded of the wonderful curative powers of "Golden Medical Discovery" in cases of diseases of the respiratory organs, it would mean a great increase in the general health and comfort, not to say a probable saving of a great many lives.

"AS TRUE AS GOSPEL." It is "as true as gospel" that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures coughs, bronchitis, weak and bleeding lungs and such diseases of the respiratory organs as through neglect or unskillful treatment may find a fatal termination in consumption. It is also true that the limit to a possibility of a cure cannot be set. When people who have had four-score hemorrhages of the lungs are cured by the use of the "Discovery," there is certainly hope for one who may have had ninety hemorrhages. When some one is taken from the condemned cell into which the local practitioner has shut him, and from a weak, emaciated wreck restored to rugged health by the use of the "Discovery," it is impossible to shut the door of hope on any one however weak he may be. It is the record of such cures which has given Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a pre-eminence among all preparations for the cure of diseases of the organs of respiration.

"I desire to send you this brief, unsolicited testimonial," writes Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, of Barium Springs, Iredell Co., N. C. "In 1898, one of my daughters was suffering on account of a severe cough, hectic fever, wasting of flesh and other symptoms of diseased lungs. I promptly gave her Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with gratifying success, and she now enjoys excellent health. This experience caused me to recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to my neighbors, who, without exception, used them with favorable results. This being true, I hereby heartily endorse your medicines."

It can be truly said of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it always helps and almost always cures. Ninety-eight per cent. of all who use "Golden Medical Discovery" are perfectly and permanently cured. The remaining two per cent. though not cured acknowledge appreciable benefit. They cough less, eat better, sleep better and feel better for the use of the "Discovery."

THE IMPORTANT POINT. While extreme cases of disease are cured by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery," the important point is not to neglect the slight cough. From such neglect fatal results have come to many thousands. It is useless to try the mere "cough medicine," or palliative, which soothes but does not cure. The one thing desirable is to be cured quickly and permanently, and it is in such cases that the "Discovery" proves its value.

"I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Hay, of Nortonville, Jefferson Co., Kansas. "After trying medicines labeled 'Sure cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured. When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cold I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved. That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

Men or women suffering from disease in chronic form are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held in strict privacy and sacred confidence. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This offer of free consultation by letter places at the disposal of the sick the skill and experience of nearly a score of the best physicians who are associated with Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician, to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Accept no substitutes for "Golden Medical Discovery." No other medicine is "just as good" for diseases of the organs of respiration.

"THE BIBLE OF THE BODY." is a title that has been given to Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is a perfect guide to the health of the body, as the Bible is to the health of the soul. This great work, containing more than a thousand large pages and over seven hundred illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Pendergast, merchant, Annot Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by F. Duhring.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes bunces in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Snyder, Troy, Ohio.

ACCIDENT ON THE RAIL

Brakeman Valencia of Ignacio Run Over by a Freight Train.

Brakeman Valentine Valencia of Ignacio, whose run is on the Owl freight of the California Northwestern, had a narrow escape from being ground to death under the wheels of the heavy cars early Friday morning of last week.

The accident occurred on the main line between Miller's and the Orphan Asylum at 3 A. M., and Valencia suffered a compound fracture of the right leg below the knee, and a crushed left foot. Valencia had mounted the top of a freight car and was in the act of giving a signal when his foot slipped and he plunged headlong between two of the cars of the rapidly moving train.

His escape from instant death was marvelous. As he was falling he was brushed to one side by the cars and his body hurled clear of the rails with the exception of his legs.

He was taken to Petaluma for surgical treatment. It is thought by the doctors that both limbs will have to be amputated.

Young Valencia, who is twenty-three years of age, has lived with his parents at Ignacio for years. He will be recollecting by Sonoma Valley passengers of seven or eight years ago as a small lad who was wont to jump on and off the train as it pulled into Ignacio. This was Valencia's first experience in railroading. It had a fascination for him and he eventually became an agile, expert and cautious brakeman and the last man on the road whom it was supposed would meet with an accident. Should Valencia recover he will be a helpless cripple for life.

Butter Advances to $15 per Roll.

Judge Small has placed himself on record as favoring a butter trust. It came about in this way: On Saturday last a hobo was arrested for stealing two rolls of butter from A. Proletti's wagon, which had been left standing in front of the Toscano Hotel while the owner was eating his dinner. The accused was caught in the act and when hauled up before Judge Small gave his name as John Doe. He stood trial and the Judge, who is small in name but big in fines, after listening to the evidence found the defendant guilty and assessed him thirty dollars, with the alternative of serving thirty days in the County Jail. Fifteen dollars a roll for butter was too much for the hobo and he determined to break the trust by taking the alternative, and Mr. Doe was subsequently juggled off to jail by Deputy Sheriff Ryan to serve out his sentence. He is evidently an old offender—not the officer but the hobo.

Fined $5 for Trespass.

Frances Lambert was arrested Saturday on complaint of G. H. Watkins, foreman of the Spreckels ranch, who charged him with trespass. The accused was taken before Judge Small and pleading guilty to the charge was fined $5. It appears that Mr. Lambert, who is fond of hunting, winged a quail on the county road opposite the Spreckels place. The crippled bird flew a short distance after being shot and fell dead over the fence into the Spreckels domain. The hunter, bent on retrieving his game, followed the bird over the fence and rashly leaving all hope behind entered the forbidden premises. The rufian was espied by the lynx-eyed foreman and his arrest followed. Mr. Lambert quietly paid the fine and mentally ejaculated, "where are we at, anyway."

EXERCISES AND CEREMONY.

Woman's Club Plans a Great Day on the Plaza—Tree Planting to be Inaugurated.

The Woman's Club met Saturday in regular semi-monthly session, Mrs. Stearns presiding. The attendance was particularly good and the meeting altogether interesting.

Mrs. H. C. Calderwood gave a talk on forestry and advocated the planting of trees along the streets leading to the California Northwestern depot. The suggestion met with the hearty approval of the entire club and an effort will be made to beautify those thoroughfares and make the approaches to town as attractive as possible to home-seekers and tourists. The Street Committee of the club have the matter in hand.

The exercises and ceremony on the breaking of ground in the Plaza and planting a tree in memory of General Vallejo, who laid out and presented the Plaza to the City of Sonoma over half a century ago, was further discussed.

It was decided to have the affair on Saturday, February 1st, and Major E. H. Sherman of Oakland was invited to make the address on this occasion. Mr. Sherman is a fine talker and will be particularly interesting because of his early acquaintance and association with Sonoma during the military rule.

Fred T. Duhring, President of the Board of City Trustees, will be master of ceremonies and will also give a short talk. Excellent music has been arranged by the musical committee of the club. Mesdames Walliser, Duhring and Miss Riensch. The school children have also been asked to participate. Mrs. Lulu de Emparan, daughter of the late General Vallejo, will turn the first shovel of earth which is to signify that work on the Plaza has begun in earnest by the Woman's Club of Sonoma Valley.

Other matters were discussed and arranged in regard to the affair and every one was invited to take part and be present with all their friends on Saturday, February 1st. The meeting then adjourned.

Granddaughter of the Late Gen. Vallejo Weds.

Miss Francis Vallejo, the beautiful daughter of Dr. Platon Vallejo, was married to Dr. Chas. D. McGittigan, a prominent San Francisco physician, Wednesday afternoon. The wedding was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Redeemer in the metropolis.

Miss Vallejo is a cousin of the Haraszthy and a niece of Mrs. Emparan and has often visited here.

Dr. McGittigan is Demonstrator of Anatomy in the medical department of the University of California and is prominent in club circles.

The young couple are residing in San Francisco and held a large reception at their handsome home after the wedding.

Cutting Affray.

Ghlanda Bernardino cut and fatally wounded Angelo Tamba on the Taylor ranch, at White Sulphur Springs, near Santa Rosa, on Friday morning of last week. The men, who are dairymen, became engaged in a dispute which led to blows and the cutting followed. Tamba was slashed in two places, one of the wounds being on the left shoulder and the other in the left abdomen. The wounds are over four inches in length and an inch and a half in depth. The knife-wielder surrendered and is now in the Santa Rosa Jail awaiting the result of Tamba's wounds.

The High School.

The High School opened Monday with Glen Murdock and Miss Jewett as teachers. Benj. Weed, ex principal, telegraphed greetings from Oakland on the opening of his old school. Mr. Weed's classes and the Alumni are to send him a handsome gift as a token of their appreciation. The new teachers are doing good work from all accounts. Mr. Murdock is well liked and seems to be thoroughly capable. He has taken up his residence at Eden Dale.

New Deputy County Clerk.

Deputy County Clerk Rolfe L. Thompson resigned last week to accept a position in the Santa Rosa National Bank as its assistant cashier. The position made vacant by his resignation has been filled by County Clerk Fulton who has appointed Will H. Mobley to take his place.

Rain.

The rain which fell in this valley during the past week was a most welcome visitor. It was beneficial to both growing crops and pasture and assures without a doubt fine crops of hay and grain the coming season throughout the Sonoma Valley.

Latest Railway Rumor.

It was reported in Petaluma on Monday that the California Northwestern railway had been bonded by the Northern Pacific Railroad and that the big transcontinental line under its new management is at present hunting for a route from Portland, Oregon, to Willits, the present terminus of the California Northwestern. Not much credence is given to the report as such rumors have been circulated periodically for years. It must be confessed, however, that sooner or later Tiburon's superb water front, which is owned by the latter railway company, will become the southern terminus of one of the big transcontinental railway systems. Whether it will be the Northern Pacific is a question.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, JAN. 25, 1902.

A NATURAL TUNNEL.

As Interesting a Curiosity as Virginia's Natural Bridge.

While the tourist comes from afar to view the Natural bridge and carries away forever photographed on his memory the stupendous spectacle, yet the natural tunnel of Scott county is conceded by most people who have seen them both to surpass the bridge in grandeur and sublimity of scenery.

The tunnel is situated fourteen miles west of Gate City. Stone creek, a considerable stream, flows through it, and at high tide rushes along its cavernous bed with a noise resembling the heaviest thunder. The tunnel is about one-eighth of a mile in length and curves in the form of the letter S. At its southern entrance it is very high, the noble ceiling bending gracefully, forming a circular dome as smooth and regular as if hollowed out by the hand of art. From this point it gradually diminishes in size, the roof coming down till at the northern entrance it reaches to within thirty feet of the surface of the water. The northern declivity above the tunnel is irregular and presents little attraction, except its bold and rugged height, but the southern side fully compensates for all deficiencies. Here a perpendicular wall, almost as smooth as polished marble and as white as alabaster, rises 400 feet high and curves in such a manner that to one looking up from below the regular rim presents a complete semicircle. In the spring time the summit of the wall is ringed with green, intertwined with honeysuckles. On the eastern side Chimney rock, an irregular but perpendicular column, rises from the bottom of the chasm to the level of the plateau above, standing clear of the wall from base to summit. The ridge through which the tunnel extends is covered with a heavy growth of timber, and a public highway, leading from Clinchport to Rye Cove, passes along its crest.

The Virginia and Southwestern railroad has been constructed through the tunnel and presents, perhaps, the only instance of a railroad running through a natural tunnel. Owing to the curvature the railroad company had to tunnel through the angular projection near the northern entrance, thus making a double tunnel.—Scott County Leader.

Tea Drinking.

The custom of tea drinking is as old as the Chinese empire, and as early as 780 A. D. a duty was levied on the tea that grew wild on the Chinese mountains. But it is within two centuries that its use was adopted by the English, when the East Tea company imported it and it was sold at $25 a pound. Its use was confined to the royal household. In the reign of Henry VII. a refreshment consisting of tea and cakes was called a voidie.

On the occasion of the marriage dinner of Catherine of Aragon and Arthur, prince of Wales, the court chronicler wrote: "The evening refreshment called voidie was brought in by fourscore earls, barons and knights, walking two and two. Ipcras and comfits were offered. One noble servant presented the golden spice plate, a second the cups, while a third of lower rank filled the cups from a golden ewer."

Since then what Washington Irving calls the "motherly teapot" has become a power in the world.

A Bird That Sews.

The sewing or tailor bird of India is a little yellow creature not much larger than one's thumb. To escape falling a prey to snakes and monkeys the tailor bird, travelers say, picks up a dead leaf and flies up into a high tree and, with a fiber for a thread and its bill for a needle, sews the leaf on to a green one hanging from the tree, the sides being sewed up and an opening left at the top. That a nest is swinging in the tree no snake or monkey, or even a man, would suspect.

Too Much Bathing.

According to the London Lancet too much bathing is harmful, as it tends to "maceration of the superficial part of the epidermis, which is too frequently removed and occasions probably too rapid a proliferation of the cells of the malpighian layer." In spite of this portentous decision, however, it is safe to say that the mad Englishman will continue to stalk through Europe with his beloved tub, just as usual.

Eve's Apple Tree.

A poisonous fruit, supposed to have the mark of Eve's teeth, grows in Ceylon and the tree is called "Eve's apple tree." The fruit is of an orange tint on the outside and deep crimson within, and each apple has the appearance of having had a piece bitten out of it. This fact, together with its poisonous quality, led the Mohammedans to represent it as the forbidden fruit of the garden of Eden.

TOKYO A CITY OF PLEASURE.

In Some Ways Japan's Capital is More Fascinating Than Paris.

Of all the lands in the world none exerts the peculiar fascination of Japan. Others have equal beauty of scenery, greater grandeur, more noble works of art, more interesting problems of society, writes David Starr Jordan in The Humanitarian. But none possesses an equal fascination. No one who has been in the real Japan which lies outside the treaty ports and the foreign hotels and railways ever could or ever would forget his experience. No one, if he could, would ever fail to return.

The great secret of this charm lies with the people themselves. They have made a fine art of personal relations. Their acts are those of good taste and good humor. Two cities of about the same size and relative importance are Paris and Tokyo. No two could show a greater contrast in spirit. Both are in a sense cities of pleasure. Tokyo is a city of continual joyousness, little pleasures drawn from simple things, which leave no sting and draw nothing from future happiness. Paris is feverish and feels the "difference in the morning" and the "hard, fierce lust and cruel deed" which go with the search for pleasure that draws on the future for the joys of the present.

No one who catches the spirit of Paris can fail to miss the underlying sadness, the pity of it all. The spirit of Tokyo—not of all Tokyo, but of its life as a whole—is as fresh as the song of birds, as sweet as children's prattle is," and it is good to be under its spell.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP
A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought cure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine my boy would not be on earth to-day.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by F. Duhring.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

GREAT SHOEMAKERS.

George Fox's Suit of Leather and Roger Sherman's Common Sense.

Carlyle said that one of the most remarkable incidents in history was that of the making of George Fox's suit of leather. He made it himself. The man, the first of the Friends, and by trade a shoemaker, was one to whom the divine ideal of the universe seemed to be manifested. Fox made shoes until he became so interested in the books he had studied that he could not hold himself in check. He had to wear, so he made himself a leather suit that would withstand years of wear. Carlyle wrote, "Let some Angelo or Rosa picture George Fox on that morning when he spread out his cutting board for the last time and cut cowhides by unwonted patterns and stitched them together into one continuous all including case, the farewell service of his awl."

"Roger Sherman never said a foolish thing in his life," said Thomas Jefferson. "Roger Sherman had more common sense than any other man I ever knew," said another eminent man. "When I come in late, and do not know which way to vote," said Fisher Ames, "I ask how Sherman voted. He always votes right." Sherman was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was a shoemaker until he was twenty-one years old. People used to point out where he sat, where he worked and studied, and where he could set his book so that he could glance at it in the interval of the work of the hammer and the awl. Of his connection with the "gentle craft" he was never ashamed. He declared in congress against a certain contract for shoes. "The charges are exorbitant," he said, which fact he proved by specifying the cost of the leather and the materials and of the work. The minuteness with which this was done excited surprise, and then he said to the committee, "I am by trade a shoemaker." Yes, a patriot and shoemaker he was, and in both capacities he was pre-eminent for common sense.—Success.

A Train Problem.
It is seldom, indeed, that the following question is answered correctly offhand:

A train starts daily from San Francisco to New York and one daily from New York to San Francisco, the journey lasting five days. How many trains will a traveler meet in journeying from New York to San Francisco?

About ninety-nine persons out of a hundred would say five trains, as a matter of course. The fact is overlooked that every day during the journey a fresh train is starting from the other end, while there are five trains on the way to begin with. Consequently the traveler will meet not five trains, but ten.

What an "inch" of Rain Means. Few people can form a definite idea of what is involved in the expression, "An inch of rain." It may aid such to follow this curious calculation. An acre is equal to 6,272,640 square inches. An inch deep of water on this area will be as many cubic inches of water, which, at 227 to the gallon, is 22,000 gallons. This immense quantity of water will weigh 220,000 pounds, or 100 tons. One hundredth of an inch alone is equal to one ton of water to the acre.

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 28, 1902.

"Continued:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist in this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
